Victoria is a teacher from New Jersey who enjoys her time in the summer. In her spare {summer} time, she likes to bake fun desserts with the help of Pinterest, her own ideas, and flavors she enjoys most! She is excited to share her ideas with you and hope they fill your home with the sweetest summer!

Victoria is gluten free and will always look for new ways to make standard desserts friendly to those who are gluten free too! Look for simple ways to replace all gluten ingredients with a substitute ingredient on her recipes.
